Dear Diversi-Dial/STS Sysop,

Summer is just about over and kids are starting yet another school year. I received a letter from Lightspeed Electronics with a lot of useful information. By the time you read this, STS V1.5 SHOULD be officially released thus ending Lightspeed's betatest and D-Dial sysop discount programs. In this letter, there is a note about nationwide linking for $75.00 a month per station. This seems to me, to be a bit on the steep side although that is my own opinion. Although the large links via PC Pursuit are long gone and links are few and far between, I feel that there are too few stations up and running to reap the full benefits of nationwide linking. Most sysops charge between $5.00 and $15.00 a month for passwords and coupled with their phoneline charges (STS-01 has the highest phone bill in the country so I'm told) $75.00 per month for nationwide linking would seem to be an added burden on most stations. If sysops would take the time to write me on this issue, some of their comments may be added into the 12/91 update space permitting. That's it for this quarter, here are the updates/corrections.
